Kelley Lamm dramatically melts away challenges while providing recipes for success. Kelley is a passionate and engaging professional speaker, author, business and life coach with over 25 years of entrepreneurial expertise. She is the author of the soon to be released and critically acclaimed book , “BitterSweet”, a unique journey through life both pleasure and pain.

Kelley speaks to individuals, organizations and businesses to help participants overcome life’s challenges. She is no stranger to adversity and not only speaks from the heart but from experience. Kelley Has undergone several life threatening moments and uses these stories as examples that blend those challenges to create positive change that will lead to a recipe for success. Her passionate style, her compelling tone and her engaging stories create the perfect presentation.

When not traveling to inspire Kelley Lamm is a personal business and life coach. She has been seen frequently on several television networks, radio airwaves, local and national magazines.

Ms. Lamm lives in St. Charles, Missouri with her two amazing daughters.
